Facilities

- OPD consultation with Medical Officers at Wellness Centres and with Specialists in Gen. Medicines, ENT, Skin and V.D., Gynaecology and Obstetrics, Dental Surgery etc. in Polyclinic.
- In Polyclinic, AYUSH units are also available for OPD consultation.
- Laboratories are available in Polyclinic and few Wellness Centres. In Polyclinic, a number of Bio-Chemistry tests and all routine investigations of blood, urine, stool, sputum etc. are being done. Also, in Radiology dept., Ultrasonography and X-ray facilities are available. Also in four wellness centres (WC No.1, 4, 6 and 7), mini laboratories are available wherein blood, urine, stool, sputum examination are being done and ECG facilities in 2 WCs (No.4 and 6) are present.
- Referral facilities are available through Wellness Centres and Polyclinic. Referrals for empanelled Hospitals / Govt Hospitals are required for Consultation from Specialists not available in Polyclinic or Super Specialists as the case may be; for investigations not available in Polyclinic and for Admission of patients to any Govt. or Private Empanelled Hospitals.
- Issue of medicines is through wellness centres only. Patient from any part of country can avail the facility through any wellness centre who is holding a valid CGHS card.
- Medicines are being issued for three months also for patients having chronic diseases.
- For procurement of medicines for longer duration (maximum 6 months), when patient is going abroad, permission from the Additional Director is required on valid and updated prescription in special circumstances etc.
- For investigations from Private Empanelled Hospital/ Diagnostic centres, permission is granted by CMO I/C in case of pensioners for cashless facility; and from respective departments in case of in service patient category on being prescribed by any specialist or medical officer of CGHS. The in-service patient has to pay for investigations from empanelled Hospitals/ Laboratories at CGHS rate, and he gets reimbursement of the expenses from his department.
- Family welfare and MCH Services through wellness centres and Polyclinic.
- Costly medicines can be indented through the Wellness Centres on valid prescription of a Specialist or a Super Specialist. On a prescribed format the application enrooted through CMO I/C has to get approval from the Additional Director, CGHS, Jaipur.
- Emergency treatment facilities are available at all Empanelled Hospitals on cashless basis for all beneficiaries. The Hospitals generate bills and send to respective departments for payments. The bills of M.Ps. get paid by Rajay Sabha or Lok Sabha Secretariate as the case may be. Bills of EX M.Ps. are paid by the CGHS.
- For artificial implants, permission is required to be obtained from the Additional Director in routine cases on a valid prescription of a Specialist or a Super Specialist.

- All the Wellness Centres are computerized and interconnected throughout the country through nic.and the work is in progress for Computerization of Polyclinic also. History of patient's treatment can be visualized in his account in the Computer which can be accessed by his beneficiary ID.
- Almost entire Jaipur has been covered through its seven Wellness Centres. Pensioners residing in other cities where CGHS is not available and have opted for obtaining health facilities from CGHS are also covered under the Scheme, provided they are not getting their fixed medical allowance in their pension.
- Domiciliary visits by medical officers of wellness centres for the patients who cannot attend to any wellness centre due to their illness.
