(i) The particulars of Organization, Functions and Duties;

Central Government Health Scheme is providing comprehensive medical care to the Central Government employees and pensioners enrolled under the scheme.

Organization:

The Central Government Health Scheme was started in 1954 with the objective of providing comprehensive medical care to the Central Government employees, both serving and pensioners and their dependent family members. The scheme is also providing service to members and former members of parliament, judges of Supreme Court and High Court, freedom fighters, former Governors and former Vice-Presidents of India.

Central Government Health Scheme was introduced in Mumbai in the year 1963 with seven dispensaries. Over the years the scheme has expanded considerably and presently there are 25 Dispensaries, 2 Polyclinics, 3 Dental units, 3 Homoeopathic units and 2 Ayurvedic dispensaries. One Wellness Centre with Allopathy and Ayurvedic unit in CGHS Goa.

CGHS Mumbai provides health care through following

- Allopathy
- Dental
- Homeopathy
- Ayurveda

Suggestions and complaints on various aspects of the functioning at this scheme are used as feedback for the initiatives to be taken to improve the functioning of CGHS, which have yielded positive results.
