(Department of Personnel & Training)

North Block, New Delhi
Dated the 23rd June, 2008

To

The Chief Secretaries of all the States/UTs (except the State of J&K)

Subject : Initiatives for effective implementation of the RTI Act, 2005.

Sir,

I am directed to say that it is the responsibility of the Central Government and the Governments of all the States/UTs to implement the provisions of the Right to Information Act, 2005 effectively. Some of the States have taken innovative steps in fulfillment of their responsibility. One of such States is the State of Andhra Pradesh. That State has taken following steps in the matter:

- i. It has introduced an elaborate system of compiling of RTI data from various public authorities in the State through an MIS developed by it in consultation with the Centre for Good Governance, Hyderabad. This enables the State Information Commission to prepare its Annual Report as mandated under Section 25 of the Act. Simultaneously, the system facilitates the State Government to monitor the implementation of the Act.
- ii. There is a high level Monitoring Committee on RTI matters in the State, headed by the Chief Secretary, which meets once in a quarter.
- iii. The Government of Andhra Pradesh and the State Information Commission had organized a Mass Awareness Programme last year throughout the State. The result manifested itself in the form of increase in the number of RTI applications in the State. The following initiatives were taken for awareness generation in the State :
 - a. preparation of slides for exhibition in cinema theatres and beaming of strips on TV channels;
 - b. preparation of short films for telecasting on TV/cinema theatres;
 - c. preparation of lessons on RTI for incorporation in school syllabi;
 - d. display of information on boards and presentation of templates for rural areas;
 - e. preparation of e-learning module on RTI under the technical support by the Centre for Good Governance, Hyderabad.

3. You are requested to take similar actions/measures in your State, so as to ensure effective implementation of the provisions of the Act. Copies of the following documents are enclosed for your ready reference:

...2/-

- i. Order No.253 dated 12.1.2007 issued by the Govt. of Andhra Pradesh nominating all the District Collectors as Coordinating Officers and District Revenue Officers (DROs) as Nodal Officers for effective and timely implementation of the RTI Act, 2005;
- ii. Order No.6488 dated 20.11.2006 directing all the Departments of the Secretariat to issue suitable instructions to all the Heads of Departments and Public Authorities under their control to maintain information relating to RTI in prescribed registers and for timely submission of the information to the State Information Commission for preparation of Annual Report. (Copies of the format of Registers and related reports are annexed with the Order);
- iii. Order No.6412 dated 15.11.2006 of the State Government constituting high level Monitoring Committee;
- iv. Model lessons to be introduced in the Environmental Science of Class 5th .

Yours faithfully,

(K.G. Verma)

RIGHT TO INFORMATION

(Raju, Ravi and Aruna are playing in front of Ravi's house)

Mother: Ravi, why have you been playing here instead of going to the playground?

Ravi: Ma, a drain has been overflowing on to the playground and the smell is unbearable.

Mother: Then, you should have complained in the Panchayat Office, instead of playing here.

Raju: Aunty, my brother has already given a written complaint in the Panchayat Office five days ago.

Aruna: Aunty, will they look into our complaint?

Mother: Yes Aruna, ever since the Right to Information Act came fully into force on October 12, 2005, officers are looking into such complaints.

[Picture1: Children at their play and Ravi's mother talking to them]

Aruna: Aunty, what is "Right to Information"?

Mother: The right to obtain information available with any Public Authority is Right to Information. It includes the right to inspect work, documents, records and also taking certified samples of material.

Raju: Aunty, would you, please, tell us more about the 'Right to Information Act'?

Mother: Yes, gladly. This Act can be used to get information about the developmental activities of the Government, their expenditure, welfare schemes and services.

Ravi: Ma, what else can we know under this Act?

Mother: We can also access information regarding roads, electricity, services available at Primary Health Centres, quota sanctioned to Ration Shops etc.

Raju: Aunty, can we also ask for information related to our school?

Mother: Not only information related to your school, but you can also ask for information about land records, particulars of village developmental activities, old age pensions etc.

Aruna: Aunty, the Act is really wonderful! How did you come to know about this Act?

Mother: I have come to know all this through the media. I read newspaper every day, listen to the radio and watch T.V.

Raju: Aunty, please tell us more about this Act.

Mother: Sure! Ours is a democratic country. Democracy is people's government. Government spends public money. Under this Act, public offices should provide information relating to their offices, voluntarily.

Raju: Aunty, why do you say that money spent by Government is public money?

Mother: You see, if you buy a pen, a part of the price paid goes to the government as tax. The amount we pay towards Property Tax, Water Tax etc, is spent by the Government on developmental works.

Ravi: Ma, will information be available in all public offices in our village?

Mother: Yes, it should be. It is the duty of the Public Authority to make the information available and we have a right to obtain this information.

Aruna: You said that we have a right to obtain information. But whom do we ask, aunty?

Mother: Good question! We can get information from the Public Information Officer of every public office.

Raju: Aunty, so we can find out the status of my brother's complaint about the drainage problem near the playground!

Mother: Oh yes, one can make an application to find out the action taken on the complaint. To obtain information is our right. Not just that, Raju, normally, information shall be provided to the applicant within 30 days. In case, information concerns the life or liberty of a person, it shall be provided within 48 hours.

Aruna: Aunty, what if information is not given in 30 days?

Mother: Then you can appeal to a higher official.

Ravi: Ma, will you please come along with us to the Panchayat Office to find out about the action taken on the complaint given by Raju's brother?

Mother: Sure. Get a sheet of paper. I'll help you write an application under the Right to Information Act.

[Children write as directed and they leave to meet the Village Secretary along with Ravi's mother].

Raju, Ravi, Aruna and Mother: Namasthe Sir!

Village Secretary: Namasthe Madam! (turning towards the children) What made you come here with your mother instead of going to school, children?

[Picture 2: All greeting the Pachayat Secretary]

Raju, Ravi, Aruna and Mother: We have come to meet you, Sir.

Village Secretary: What's the matter?

Mother: Sir, Raju's brother gave a written complaint in your office 5 days ago stating that the drain near the playground has been overflowing and spreading foul smell.

Village Secretary: The sanitary workers of our Panchayat are cleaning the drains every day.

Raju: No Sir. Nobody has cleaned the drain near the playground for several days.

Aruna: Sir, may I know whose duty is it to clean the drains and how frequently?

Village Secretary: Why do you need this information?

Mother: Sir, under the Right to Information Act, every citizen has a right to obtain information. Children! Give him the application.

Village Secretary: [Receives the application] OK. You can go, now.

Children: What about the receipt, Sir?

Village Secretary: Oh! You want a receipt. (Prepares the receipt) Here you are! I will get the drain cleaned immediately.

Children, you had asked for information. Well, sanitary workers of our Panchayat should clean the drain every day.

I will send you this information in writing.

[Picture 3: Village Secretary giving the receipt]
