(As per list)

Subject: Grants-in-aid for the year 2015-2016 to the Central Government Employees
Resident Welfare Associations- Submission of Accounts for the year 2014-2015-regarding.

Sir/Madam,

I am directed to say that the Department of Personnel & Training has been sanctioning Grants-in-aid to the eligible recognized Residents Welfare Association formed by the Central Government Employee in residential colonies to enable them to meet a part of their expenditure on the welfare activities, programmes during the financial year. The recognized Central Government Employee Resident Welfare Associations eligible to receive grants-in-aid may please send a request to this effect to this Department in the prescribed proforma.

2. The recognized Central Government Employee Residents Welfare Associations are requested to send their request keeping in view the following guidelines:-

- a. Central Government employees and employees of Lok Sabha, Rajya Sabha, Supreme Court, High Court, UPSC, Statutory and Autonomous bodies and Delhi Administration shall qualify for regular membership of an Association in respect of the grants-in-aid from the Department of Personnel & Training subject to fulfillment of conditions as laid in para (b) to (h) of clause II (2) of the O.M. No. 5/8/2013-Welfare dated para 3rd June, 2014.
- b. Grants-in-aid admissible will be subject to an upper ceiling of Rs.10,000/- during a financial year.
- c. Consolidated accounts for the previous financial year may be provided in Annexure 'A' signed by the President, Secretary, Treasurer and Internal Auditor.
- d. A complete list of all the members showing their names, residential address, official designation and address as on 31.03.2015 may be submitted as in Annexure 'B'.
- e. All the vouchers relating to every head of expenditure as appearing in Annexure 'A' should be maintained by the Association, so as to verify the expenditure as and when needed.

- f. The stock register maintained by the Association as audited and certified by the Internal Auditor after physical verification should be maintained by the Association. The Department of Personnel & Training may verify the stock register as and when required. Similarly, the inventory of articles should also be maintained.
  - g. A copy of the minutes of the General Body meeting wherein the accounts of the Association and other activities thereof for the previous year etc. have been approved may be submitted (Annexure 'L').
  - h. Utilization certificate in respect of the grant-in-aid provided by this Department and information regarding Assets acquired wholly or substantially funded from the grant may also be furnished as per proforma in Annexure 'G' and 'H' respectively.
  - i. A report on the activities of the Association with reference to the Annual Action Plan as provided in Clause VII of the rules and regulations framed under the Model Constitution may also be provided (Annexure 'K').
  - j. A certificate regarding expenditure on Swachh Bharat Mission may also be provided (Annexure 'M').
3. It may be noted that even if the Association is not keen to obtain further grants-in-aid from the Government, it shall have to render full and satisfactory accounts of the grants taken in the past. In case any Association fails to get grants-in-aid for any reason for two consecutive years, such Association will stand derecognized. Those Association which have not sent acknowledgements in token of having received the grants-in-aid for the year 2014-2015 so far, are requested to send the same.
4. CGERWAs are requested to send their request complete in all respects to DOP&T preferably by 15.01.2016 for further necessary action in the matter.

Yours faithfully

P. Tyagi

N.B.:-

IN CASE, THE AUDITOR HAS MADE ANY OBJECTION, A COPY OF THE OBJECTIONS RAISED BY THE AUDITOR AND THE COMPLIANCE BY THE GENERAL SECRETARY/ PRESIDENT OF THE ASSOCIATION SHOULD BE FURNISHED.

CLARIFICATION ON ACCOUNT OF EXPENDITURE

1. No expenditure should be incurred out of grants-in-aid on watch and ward of the Quarters in the Colony.
2. Associations may incur expenditure on picnics and excursions not exceeding 10% of the total grant-in-aid for the year, the balance of such expenditure, if any, being met by raising special contributions from the participating members. The expenditure incurred on transport to the place of picnics/excursions should be met by raising special contributions for the purpose from the participating members.
3. Expenditure on entertainment (light refreshment on the General Body/executive committee meetings /Guests etc.) and conveyance should not exceed 15% and 10% respectively, of the total grants-in-aid for the year.
4. An illustrative list of item on which expenditure may be incurred by the clubs/ associations out of the grant is given below:-
  - a) Articles of sports – outdoor and indoor games equipment.
  - d) Reading Room – library organization of book clubs, magazines and periodicals.
  - c) Purchase, hire and repair of furniture, fittings etc. of clubs premises.
  - d) Hiring of accommodation for club/Association.
  - e) Film shows.
  - f) Social and cultural programmes, sports and children's functions.
  - g) community expenses incurred locally.
  - h) conveyances expenses incurred locally.
  - i) Entertainment.
  - j) Prizes.
  - k) Stationery, office equipment etc.

COLLECTION OF DONATIONS FROM COMMERCIAL FIRMS

While there is no objection to stray local voluntary donations of small amount being received, it becomes an unhealthy practice if a regular collection drive is made for collecting donations from firms, specially those with whom the clubs/associations are having commercial transactions. It has, therefore, been decided that no Association/club receiving grants-in-aid from the Department of Personnel and Training should seek any donations or financial assistance from commercial firms particularly donations of substantial amount. There is no objection to the donations being received from members giving in their personal capacity but these should be accounted for.
