

MESSAGE BY THE ADJUTANT GENERAL

At the outset, I wish all Armed Forces Veterans sound health and happiness. Central Organisation ECHS has brought out this updated second edition of Information Brochure for the benefit of our Veterans through which the latest progress in this unique Scheme can be communicated in the far flung corners of our country.

A comprehensive and quality medicare is the prime objective of the Scheme. The overwhelming response and exponential increase in membership are the testimony of the fact that the Scheme is gaining popularity amongst Veterans. Our endeavour is now to make the Scheme more user friendly. Towards this in the recent past, a large number of policies and procedures have been revised and simplified. The government has been very considerate in providing necessary budgetary support to the Scheme.

I am confident that the ECHS will continue to strive to meet the aspirations of the members and future challenges.

INTRODUCTION, CONCEPT AND ORGANISATION

1. Ex-Servicemen Contributory Health Scheme (ECHS) was launched with effect from 01 Apr 2003. It has been established to provide quality medicare to Armed Forces Veterans (AFV) and their dependents through a network of ECHS Polyclinics, service medical facilities and civil empanelled/government hospitals spread across the country. The Scheme has been structured to ensure cashless transactions, as far as possible, for the patients. Treatment provided under ECHS will be as per the allopathic medical system, covering all diseases.
2. The Scheme is financed by Govt of India.

CONCEPT OF ECHS

3. Conceptually the ECHS is to be managed through the existing infrastructure of the Armed Forces in order to minimise the administrative expenditure. The existing infrastructure includes command and control structure, spare capacity of Service Medical facilities (Hospitals and MI Rooms), procurement organisations for medical and non medical equipment, defence land and buildings etc.
4. In order to ensure minimal disruption of the Scheme during war/training and availability of ECHS services in non military areas above mentioned resources are to be supplemented as follows :-
 - (a) Establishing new Armed Forces Polyclinics in Non Military areas.
 - (b) Augmenting existing medical facilities/clinics in some selected military stations to cater for heavy ESM load (Augmented Armed Forces Clinics).
 - (c) Empanelling civil hospitals and diagnostic centres.
 - (d) Finances.

ORGANISATION OF ECHS

5. The ECHS Central Organisation is located at Delhi and functions under the COSC through AG and DGDC&W in Army HQ. The Central organisation is headed by Managing Director, ECHS, a serving Major General. Detailed Organisation of Central organisation ECHS is at Appendix 'A'. There are 13 Regional Centres ECHS. Their location and organisation is given at Appendix 'B'.
6. Details of military stations where existing medical facilities have been augmented (Augmented Armed Forces Clinics) and details of Stations where new Armed Forces Polyclinics have been established are at Appendix 'C'.
7. There are four types of Augmented/New Polyclinics i.e. Type 'A', 'B', 'C' & 'D'. Authorisation of Personnel in each type is given at Appendix 'D'.
8. Command and Control. The existing Command and Control Structure of the Army, Navy and Air Force have been given the Administrative and Financial Powers to run this Scheme. Station Commanders will exercise direct Control over the ECHS polyclinics. Station Headquarters will be able to clarify any doubts that you may have. ECHS Regional Centres are under Command HQ/Area HQ. Central Org ECHS functions as part of AG's Branch, Army HQ.

ADVANTAGES OF BECOMING ECHS MEMBER

1. No age or medical condition bar for becoming a member.
2. Life time premium ranges from Rs 1800/- to Rs 18000/- (depending upon basic uncommuted pension).

SUMMARY OF SUPREME COURT JUDGEMENT DATED 22 AUG 2006
REGARDING MEDICAL BENEFITS FOR RETIRED ARMY MEN

1. In 1999, a petition under Article 32 of the Constitution was filed as Public Interest Litigation (PIL) by Confederation of Ex-Servicemen Associations praying for recognizing the right of full and free medicare of ex-servicemen, their families and dependants. The petition came up for hearing before a two Judge Bench during May 1999 and the Bench ordered the matter to be placed before a Bench of Five Judges. The matter was subsequently heard by a Bench of five Judges and judgement was finally given on 22 Aug 2006.

2.. Supreme court has opined the following:-

- (a) A Contributory Scheme such as ECHS 'cannot be held illegal, unlawful or unconstitutional'.
- (b) One time contribution amount from Rs 1800/- to Rs 18000/- 'cannot be said to be excessive, disproportionate or unreasonably high. It cannot be held 'illegal', unlawful, arbitrary or otherwise unreasonable'.
- (c) 'Getting free and full medical facilities is not a part of fundamental right of Ex-Servicemen'.
- (d) The Court was concerned with the cases of those ESM who have retired before 01 Jan 1996.
- (e) The Govt should consider granting waiver of contribution by Pre 01 Jan 1996 retiree ESMs or Govt pay contribution on behalf of such veterans.

3. Insructions were received from the Govt not to charge contribution from all Pre 01 Jan 1996 retiree ESM in future who want to become members of ECHS in Apr 2007 and the same are being implemented. For the refund of those Pre 01 Jan 1996 retiree ESM who had payed contribution and become members earlier, the case is sub- judice and decision will be intimated once received.
