2. The process of revision of pension cases is underway. The progress made in this regard is being reviewed in this Department on a regular basis. During the review meetings it has been noted that the progress of revision of pension cases in various Ministries/Departments is far from satisfactory. The Ministries/Departments where the progress is quite dismal have been addressed separately in this regard.

3. It is, therefore, requested that this work may be given focused attention and a clear timeline be drawn so that such cases are disposed off in a time bound manner and in a short span of time. It is also requested that the details of revision, such as number of cases due for revision and the number of cases where revision has been done, barring the personal details as to name, pay & pension of the pensioner, carried out by the respective Administrative Branches may be uploaded on the website of the concerned Ministry/Department on fortnightly basis for information of all concerned.
